80. Vikrama Sih, Gold Tanka, 10.46g, possibly attributed to Vikramaditya, or Vikrama Simha, the Tomar ruler of Gwalior.

The coin illustrated here is exactly similar to a copper coin listed by Goron & Goenka G & G MU27, p. 494. The Devanagari legend on it clearly reads 'Vikram Sih', possibly standing for 'Vikrama Simha'. This coin was mistakenly attributed to the Tanjore Marathas by Mitchiner. However, Goron & Goenka have rightly placed it within the context of a series of copper and billon coins, dated to c. 15th-16th centuries AD. They have also drawn attention to the similarity these coins bear with the late Sultanate issues (Sayyid and Lodi dynasties) of Delhi. These coins bear legends inscribed in a highly stylised manner which G & G could not read conclusively.

A careful scrutiny of legends on coins illustrated by G & G indicates that some of them can be read as names of the Tomar rulers of Gwalior. MU22 for example could read 'Raja Ganesh' and MU23 might read 'Dungar Singh'. There exist unpublished silver coins with legends 'Man Sih' or 'Saha', which could be issues of 'Man Singh'. These are exactly similar in type to the 'Vikrama Sih' coin MU27. All these four rulers belong to the Tomar dynasty of Gwalior. The dates some of the coins bear also fit in with this attribution. There is therefore a good likelihood that these coins are issues of that dynasty. About Extremely Fine, Unique.

Realised : ₹ .....

Estimate : ₹ 15,00,000 - 20,00,000

Vikrama Simha, or Vikramaditya, was the last Tomar ruler of Gwalior. He lost his kingdom to Ibrahim Lodi in 1519AD. The coin offered here is the first known gold for the series. It is a matter of wonder why the last Tomar king of Gwalior would have issued gold coins. Nevertheless, all gold coinage in this period is exceedingly rare – Sayyid gold coins are few and Lodhi gold only known by 2-3 pieces. This unique coin therefore fits in with the general scarcity of gold in 16th century North India. As gold issue of a small but powerful North Indian Hindu kingdom, it is a significant and important specimen.

Hammira was the last Chahmana ruler of Ranathambhor. He defeated the armies of Khilji Sultans twice before the Rajput city was sacked by armies of Alaud-din Khilji. Hammira was killed in this last siege. The reverse legend names the coins as his issue ('Priya', appropriated by Hamira) and the date '45' refers to VS1345 as the date of its issue. It is very close to the first victory of Hammira over Jalal ud-Din Khilji and it is possible the coins were struck as commemorative.

The Jams of Nawanagar (Jamnagar) were permitted by Sultan Muzaffar III to strike Koris, which they modeled on Mahmudis in the Sultan's name with an additional legend Shri Jam added to it. This coin is exactly similar in type, except the legend is entirely different. What it means is a matter of discussion – 'A' and 'Sā' could be initials of Ajaji Satalji, the son of Jam Satalji Vibhaji, who lost against the Mughal army in battle of Bhuchar Mori in 1593. Ajaji was killed in the battle, but could have struck coins in his name as the heir apparent between 1569 and 1593. It is also possible that the 'A Sā' means 'Akbar Shah' and the legend is a reference to Akbar, the victor of the battle. Whichever way one looks at it, the coin is historically interesting.

In August 1766, Robert Clive introduced a gold coinage as legal tender. This included Mohur, 1/2 Mohur, 1/4 Mohur and 1/8 Mohur. Of these coins of Mohur and 1/2 Mohur are reported by Pridmore (# 15 & 16). No further fractional coins are reported and published of this earliest issue. However this experiment of gold coinage failed in just 2 years and they were withdrawn from circulation on 19th March 1768. These coins had the letter C as the mint mark next to the RY. The coin offered bears RY 7 but no trace of the letters C is visible.
