Only a few specimens of this rare type are known to exist, including two in the British Museum and one in the Bode Museum, Berlin. The depiction of Mahasena, Skandakumara and Vishakha as separate individuals on this coin shows that during the Kushan period, these three were regarded as separate deities. About three hundred years later, during the Gupta period, they fused into Karttikeya, the son of Shiva, who retained their 'war-god' character. The coin motif therefore constitutes significant evidence for the evolution of Hindu iconography. The depiction of the enclosure for the deities is reminiscent of a Roman temple.

It is not known what precisely 'Shri Seraha' means, even though the legend is pretty clear on this coin. It is of a type very closely modelled on the coins of Vengi Chalukya ruler Vishnuvardhana VI alias Vishama Siddhi so it is plausible that it is an issue of one of his successors, most likely Jayasimha I (641-673 AD).

(x1.5)

201. North Maharashtra/Khandesh region - 'bull' type coin in alloyed copper of Vishnukundin fabric, tentatively attributed to local Rashtrakuta dynasty, unpublished in major sources, 1.86g. Obv: Bull standing facing right; Brahmi legend Shri Shuravigraha above. Rev: Stylized representation of Vaishnava wheel with four spokes, with Swastikas in each quadrant and a flaming dotted border. Extremely fine, Extremely rare.

Sold for : ₹ ..... Estimate : ₹ 10,000 - 12,000

Rare examples of 'bull' type Vishnukundin fabric coins of early medieval Northern Maharashtra are known to have animal reverses, instead of the usual Kalasha motif. A peacock, an elephant, a horse and a lion are known. The legend on this coin is tentatively read as 'Kanta Vigna' and this might suggest a new king with a '-Vigraha' ending name.

203. Medieval Khandesh/North Maharashtra - 'lion'-type coin of Vishnukundin fabric in alloyed copper attributed to the Sendraka-Nikumbha dynasty, (c.600-700 AD), unpublished in major sources, 3.70g. Obv: Lion standing facing right with gaping mouth; a horizontal Shanka shell and modified Brahmi legend Niku(m)bha above. Rev: Kalasa or vase of plenty between two lamp-stands. Extremely fine, Very rare.
Sold for : ₹ ..... Estimate : ₹ 10,000 - 12,000

The Nikumbha dynasty is known to have ruled in South Gujarat - Khandesh - North Maharashtra region on the evidence of four copper-plate grants. From these grants we learn that Bhanushakti was the founder of the family. Following him, three other rulers are known - Adityashakti, Allashakti and Jayashakti. The dynastic name 'Nikumbha' survives as the present day surname 'Nikam' among the high caste Marathas.

Sold for : ₹ ..... Estimate : ₹ 8,000 - 10,000

It is evident from the legend that the coin was issued by a king whose name began with 'Vi' and ended in 'Deva'. It is not certain to which dynasty he belonged but it is possible that he was a Rashtrakuta feudatory, judging by the Garuda emblem.

Sold for : ₹ ..... Estimate : ₹ 25,000 - 30,000

She was the grandmother of Chakravarman who was put on the throne as a baby in the tumultuous aftermath of Sugandha Rani's reign, during which soldiery named as the 'Tantrins' controlled Kashmir. Kalhana mentions that Kshillika ruled as a regent for the boy king for ten years, after a short period of regency by Bappatadevi, who was Chakravarman's mother. With the discovery of a coin in her name, we add one more name to coins issued by female rulers in Indian Numismatics.

Gangas of Talakadu came into existence simultaneously for the first time in Karnataka around mid-fourth century CE. They were the contemporaries of the Kadambas of Banavasi and ruled from Gangapadi-96000 or Gangavadi. The Ganga dynasty lasted for nearly 650 years with 27 rulers known so far from the available epigraphs. Their crest was Madagajendra lanchhana, the lordly elephant in rout. While they were in frequent war with the Nolambas, they had matrimonial relationship with the Nolambas too. The coin is attributed to Satyavakya Kongani Varma Permanadi Marasimha, who wore too many titles such as Gangavajra, Ganga kandarpa, Nolamba Kuantaka, the destroyer of the Nolambas. Marasimha was a feudatory of Rashtrakuta Krishna-III.

Sold for : ₹ ..... Estimate : ₹ 25,00,000 - 35,00,000

The emperor Jahangir struck a remarkable series of figural type rupees and mohurs, unprecedented for a Muslim ruler. In his autobiography, he mentions he got an idea that instead of inscribing the name of the month of issue on his coins - a feature introduced by his father, the emperor Akbar - he would show the sun sign for each month. Thus, a series of zodiacal types was struck, each sign corresponding to the month of issue. The obverse dies were reused from year to year, but new dated reverses were produced for each subsequent issue. The 'Zeenat Dad' couplet, seen on the reverse of this coin, was used only for the first year of issue the combination AH1028/Ry14. The coins were struck from mints wherever the Emperor was in residence and are known for the mints of Agra, Ahmadabad, Ajmer, Fathpur, Kashmir and Lahore. They were considered to be heretical by Jahangir's successor Shahjahan and recalled from circulation - however their immense beauty and novel conceptual designs made them collector's items even during their circulatory life. They are perhaps the most sought-after Mughal coins and have remained so for nearly four centuries.

This coin, although similar to M&W T3a has some interesting features - the presence of an English letter 'S' to the left of the RY is the most interesting. It might denote the Christian monogram 'IHS' and as such might suggest an involvement of a European officer under the Sindhias. The obverse also has a couple of interesting symbols not noted by M&W. There appears to be a fish on obverse at 8 o'clock. The main obverse symbol, in the 'S' of the word Fulus, is a sun-shield or aftabgir.

This is a variety from a long series of copper Kachcha Paisas, most likely struck at one of the Sindhias' possessions in Central India. The town of Beer (now spelled as 'Beed') is located on the Western fringe of the erstwhile Hyderabad state. It is known for a Sufi shrine and was aliasd 'Mominabad' during the Nizam's rule. It is likely that coins were struck here for a brief time during the period of economic anarchy that characterised the Nizam's state in late 18th - early 19th century.

The handsome issues of Kalyani were struck for a short while in early 19th century, probably to celebrate the Nawab's wedding to Sahibzadi Bakhatwar Begum, the granddaughter of Nizam ul-Mulk Safa Jah I. Their design is unusual - without the mention of the Mughal emperor and featuring the Kalima instead.

TERMS OF AUCTION

1. This is a public auction sale conducted by Classical Numismatic Gallery, a licensed Auctioneer, issued by the Archaeology Survey of India, (hereinafter referred to as "Auctioneer"). Bidding in this Auction constitutes acceptance by you (the "Bidder") of all the Terms and conditions stated herein and shall be bound by them. Bidders may include consignors who may bid and purchase lots in the Auction consigned by the consignor or by other consignors. The Buyer is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer. Only Indian residents/NRIs having valid address in India can bid in our Auctions.
2. Lots may carry a Reserve. However, no reserve will be higher than the upper estimate. A Reserve is a confidential price or bid below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor.
3. All lots are guaranteed genuine. Any claim of lack of authenticity must be made in writing by the original purchaser immediately after discovery that an item is not authentic, and upon making such a claim Classical Numismatic Gallery shall, in its sole and absolute discretion, reserve the right to consult and rely upon any expert(s) or authority considered by him reliable in establishing the authenticity of that lot. If the lot is then proved not authentic then the original purchaser must immediately return the lot to Classical Numismatic Gallery in the same condition as at the time of the auction with the original Invoice and payment proof. Lots that have been encapsulated ("slabbed")/Graded by a grading and/or authentication service may not be returned for any reason, including authenticity, if they have been removed from the encapsulation ("slab")/Grading.
4. Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Attribution, date, condition, and other descriptions are the opinion of the cataloguer, and no warranty is expressed or implied. Neither the auctioneer nor the seller shall give warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error of description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only, and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. The auctioneer reserves the right in forming his opinion, to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same, provided that he shall have given notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same to the auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the Auction. Under no circumstances will the auctioneer be liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, including, but not limited to, loss of any kind of profit whatsoever. Estimates are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value. Bidders are advised to scrutinize the lots they bid for.
5. The Auctioneer shall have the right to open or accept the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor, a Bidder by mail, telephone, internet, or any other participant in the Auction. Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise. Auctioneer shall have the right in his or her sole and absolute discretion to accept or decline any bid, challenge any bid or bidding increment, to reduce any mail bid received, adjudicate all bidding disputes and to determine the prevailing bid. The Auctioneer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to rescind the acceptance of any bid and place the lot for Auction again. Auctioneer's decision on all bidding disputes shall be binding and final.
6. No "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid. Bids will not be accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age. The estimate figure below each lot are the auctioneer's estimate of an expected price only, bids which are less than the lower estimate will not be considered by the auctioneer.
7. Your bids will be treated as your maximum bid. Classical Numismatic Gallery is not responsible for any errors in bidding. All Bidders should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is the bid intended. Once the lot is announced sold, the Buyer is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Buyer made a mistake.
8. Classical Numismatic Gallery reserve the right to postpone or cancel the auction without notice in its sole discretion. Any lot or lots may be withdrawn by the Auctioneer without notice prior to its being sold. No participant in the Auction shall have a right to claim any costs or damages, including consequential damages from the Auctioneer or the Consignor if a lot or lots is withdrawn from the auction, or due to delay or cancellation of the auction.
9. The Purchase price for each lot shall be the sum of hammer price plus 12.50% Buyers Premium plus applicable GST on Hammer plus 18% GST on Buyers Premium. 18% GST will be applicable on shipping & insurance charges and on late payment charges. There would be additional shipping charge on lots depending on weight, size and quantity. The total Invoice amount shall be paid in full within 7 days of the date of auction, prior to delivery of the lot. Any bidder who does not pay within the standard deadline of 7 working days, may be considered a negligent payer and may be subject to increased scrutiny and additional requirements in order to participate in future auctions.
10. Invoices are due and payable immediately upon receipt. Interest and late fees of 2% per month plus GST shall be payable on Invoices not settled within 7 working days of the auction date. The buyer shall ensure that all payment formalities are completed within 7 working days of the date of the auction. In case payment is not received within such period, this shall be treated as a breach of contract and Classical Numismatic Gallery may take any steps, including the institution of legal proceedings, which are appropriate to enforce payment by the buyer.
11. Payment shall be made in Indian Rupee by cheque/D.D. drawn on Indian banks or by Net Banking. We require payment in full and reflecting in our bank account from any Buyer prior to delivery of lots. Title does not pass until lots are paid in full. All associated costs for the delivery of lots such as handling, shipping, and insurance will be added to the purchase price. Credit cards will be accepted. Payment by credit card will be charged a 2% additional service fee.
12. In the event if a Buyer fails to make full payment within 14 days of the auction date, Classical Numismatic Gallery reserves the right to deem the sale incomplete and to re-sell the material by auction or privately, without notice to the Buyer, and the Buyer agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the Buyer's purchase price. Classical Numismatic Gallery has a right to offset any sums due from a Buyer against any future consignment or purchase or monies or goods in possession of Classical Numismatic Gallery.
13. Any person submitting bids on behalf of a company, corporation or any other person/persons agree to be personally liable for full payment of the invoice.
14. Auctioneer shall make maximum efforts to properly enter and execute bid received by E-mail, SMS or by other means. However, auctioneer shall not be liable for any errors for incorrectly entered or incorrectly executed bids. Bidders are responsible for their bids including any errors they may make in placing bids. Auctioneer reserve the right to refuse and reject unsigned bid sheet.
