The attribution of this type is contested - A M Shastri regards it to be a Kuninda issue but Devendra Handa suggests a Yaudheya attribution. Pieper in his catalogue follows Handa and attributes them to the Yaudheyas. Coins of this type are very rare and known from a single hoard, which appeared in the early 1980s.

Chakravarman was yet another child-ruler; he went on to rule for ten years (till 933/934), for a few months under the regency of his mother and then, under grandmother Kshillika. A new revolution by the Tantrin soldiery then installed Suravarman I; he ruled for about a year before being compelled to abdicate the throne, after failing to raise the demanded bribes. The Tantrins then re-installed Partha but deposed within a very short time-span, as Chakravarman promised the Tantrins with even greater riches. When the Tantrins installed him in 935, he appointed them in important offices but had to flee again, after failing to raise enough taxes.

Sold for : ₹ Estimate : ₹ 8,000 - 10,000

The name 'Shrimahadevi' suggests that this coin was struck in the name of a 'chief queen' - however, it is not yet known which ruler she was a queen to. Stylistically the coin looks to be an 11th century issue, so it is likely that she belonged to the first Lohara dynasty.

The broadest known Indian Hindu coin with total of 35 repousse punches on the obverse of a circular flan. Unpublished variety and known for the first time. Hoarder's envy, collector's pride. Mint state, Exceedingly rare.

Sold for : ₹

Estimate : ₹ 6,00,000 - 7,00,000

The central punch consists of the images of Ram-Laxman-Bharat-Shatrughan in warrior pose. The other punches are struck in two concentric circular orbits. The inner orbit consists of 18 singly struck 8 petalled lotus punches as in a garland. The outer orbit punches consist of 2x Sri-Sri, 1x'Ahitagaja' and 1x'Kesari' in Kannada, and 4 groups of Boar-Lotus-Boar symbols interleaving the legend punches.

The above coin is from a small hoard that had a mix of Nolamba, Ganga, and Kakatiya coins. The hoard is believed to be of the mint that changed hands of the Nolambas, Kakatiyas and the Gangas dynasties. 'Ahitagaja Kesari' is one of the common titles of the Kakatiyas adorned by many of the rulers of the dynasty starting from Prola-I. The coin fabric suggests that the coin is of period of transition between the Nolambas and the Kakatiyas. The above coin hence is assigned to Prola-I (1052-1076 CE).

According to the Ain-e-Akbari, by Abu'l Fazal Allami, the chronicler of Akbar's reign, the emperor thought that everything in this world should have a Sanskrit name. There were names given to each denomination of gold and silver coins of Akbar's reign which derived inspiration from the Indian tradition. Section 10 of the Ain-e-Akbari, gives a comprehensive list of coins under the title "The Coins of the Glorious Empire". A round shape mohur was called 'Ilahi' and the square shaped heavy mohur Lal-i-Jalali or simply 'Jalali'. The 25 tola mohur, being 1/4th of the 100 tola mohur called S'hansah, the heaviest denomination gold coin, was called as 'Atmah', ½ mohur weight of a Jalali was called as 'Dhan', weighing 6g, while the ¼ mohur weight was called as 'Man', weighing 3g. Very few fractions of the Dhan and Man coins are known in gold explaining their extreme rarity. For detailed information, kindly refer Chapter 10 of Mughal Numismatics by Mitresh Singh.

Aurangzeb imposed Jizya or poll-tax/'safety money' on select non-Muslim population in AH 1090/Ry 22. The tax was to be paid by three categories and in three sums - the 'poor' were to pay "3 Tolas, 1 Masha plus 0.45 and 1/20th of Masha" of silver, the middle classes twice this amount and the rich, four times. The sums in equivalent Dirhams were going to be 12, 24 and 48 Dirhams respectively. These quantities were in accordance with prescriptions laid down by Islamic Law or Shari'a but since there were no 'Dirhams' current in India, special coins were struck to facilitate the collection of the tax. They remain an interesting aspect of Mughal coinage and as such are highly collectible. Since the coins were issued very sporadically, they are also very rare.

'Tiruchanapali' on the coin is modern Tiruchchirappalli. Extremely rare Mughal style coins were struck bearing this mint-name after 1693-94 when Mughal forces under Zulfiqar Khan, while pursuing a campaign against the Maratha Chhatrapati Rajaram, who was besieged at Gingee, threatened Queen Mangammal, the regent of the Nayaka kingdom of Madurai, whose capital at the time was based at Tiruchchirappalli. The queen ward off the Mughal danger by paying a tribute, some of which might have been paid in form of these coins which were struck to acknowledge her obeisance to the Mughals. The mint is the southernmost place to have struck Mughal coins.

The village of Dhamoni is located in Banda tehsil of Sagar district, Madhya Pradesh. It was a strategic stronghold securing the North-South route in Mughal times and a seat of a provincial Mughal officer. In the 18th century the area became a hotbed of military and political activities involving the Mughal subahdars of Malwa, the Bangash Nawabs, the Bundelas and the Marathas. In the second decade of the Muhammad Shah's reign, when this coin was struck, a major tussle ensued between Chhatrasal Bundela and Bahlol Khan the Mughal commander of Malwa. Chhatrasal pushed Bahlol Khan towards Dhamoni and occupied it. It is possible that coins were struck here around this time to fund the campaign.

These coins were probably struck under the authority of Nawabs of Rajahmundry and Srikakulam who was feudatory to the Nizam of Haidarabad, during a period of uncertainty following the death of Nizam ul-Mulk Asaf Jah I in 1749. Sikakul, or Srikakulam, was a thriving port city on the eastern coast, benefitting from trade between Bengal and the Coromandel Coast and also transoceanic trade with Burma and the Dutch East Indies.

Anupnagar-Shahabad is perhaps the rarest Mint of Awadh, known from not more than 3-4 specimens, including one in the British Museum from the RB Whitehead collection. The location of this Shahabad is not certain, but it is most likely Shahabad near Qanauj. The name 'Anup nagar' indicates that the issue of the coins was probably linked with the powerful courtier Anup Gir Gossain, a.k.a. Himmat Bahadur, who served as an important mercenary commander in the army of the Nawab of Awadh. The mint mark of Trisul corroborates this connection. The Gossains were famous as 'warrior ascetics' and renowned for their valour.

Estimate : ₹ 50,000 - 70,000

In 1885-86, the state of Baroda found itself under increased pressure from the imperial government to stop its mint producing hand-struck coins known as 'Babashahi' rupees. To alleviate this situation, the Maharaja Sayaji Rao III decided to mechanise the coinage production and introduce milled or 'Kaldar' rupees. As a precursor to launching mechanised production, several attempts were made to prepare dies and patterns were struck. One of the designs of these patterns, dated VS 1943, was struck modelling the coins on British Indian design with a bust on obverse and a value within a wreath on the reverse. A few strikes of this design are known in copper. However, this is the first time that a pattern in a non-copper metal has come to light and it has the last two digits of the date missing suggesting they were to be put on the final dies using movable punches. As such this is an important 'missing link' in the history of mechanized coin production at Baroda.

434. Gujarat in transition - silver kori, in the names of Akbar and 'Murid Ray Singh', probably struck in late 16th century, earlier published as an issue of Rao Raydhanji II of Kutch, 4.74g. Obv: Shahada in rectangular border. Rev: Full name of Akbar, followed by Nagari/Gujarati legend murida Raysingh. Uncirculated, Extremely rare.

Sold for : ₹

Estimate : ₹ 50,000 - 60,000

This issue was said to be of Rao Raydhanji II who apparently declared himself to be a 'Murid' (disciple) of a Sufi saint. However, the fact that it is struck in the name of Akbar makes this implausible with nearly 200 years separating Raydhanji and Akbar. It is most likely to have been issued by a certain 'Ray Singh', who might have been a local chieftain in the Kathiawad area, during the power struggles that erupted in peninsular Gujarat, following Akbar's conquest of Ahmadabad and Champanir. 'Murid', also meaning 'acolyte', is found on many Mughal seals as an indicator of subservience and need not have a Sufi connotation. The double line Akbar's name on reverse shows that this is a slightly different variety of this rare type than the one that is published.

Rao Bharmalji, also known as 'Rao Bhara' was recognized by Jahangir as the one of the 'largest landholders of the province of Gujarat'. He paid a visit Jahangir while the latter was in Ahmadabad in 1618 (AH1027). Jahangir granted Bhara a personal audience, and Bhara spent two months with the Mughal Court, travelling with it to the borders of the province as the entourage moved from Ahmadabad to Mandu. During this time, Jahangir permitted Bhara to strike coins in his name. Upon return to Kutch, Bharmalji inaugurated a series of Koris bearing the Mughal Emperor's name. Earliest issues bear an AH date 1028 and are rare to find.

This Copper striking appears to be a Calcutta Mint test of the Matrix dies received from the Royal Mint in 1861, which had the final numeral of the year omitted. Worn specimens exist which suggest that a mint employee abstracted some from the mint waste and passed them off into circulation as HALF ANNAS.

TERMS OF AUCTION

1. This is a public auction sale conducted by Classical Numismatic Gallery, a licensed Auctioneer, issued by the Archaeology Survey of India, (hereinafter referred to as "Auctioneer"). Bidding in this Auction constitutes acceptance by you (the "Bidder") of all the Terms and conditions stated herein and shall be bound by them. Bidders may include consignors who may bid and purchase lots in the Auction consigned by the consignor or by other consignors. The Buyer is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer. Only Indian residents/NRIs having valid address in India can bid in our Auctions.
2. Lots may carry a Reserve. However, no reserve will be higher than the upper estimate. A Reserve is a confidential price or bid below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor.
3. All lots are guaranteed genuine. Any claim of lack of authenticity must be made in writing by the original purchaser immediately after discovery that an item is not authentic, and upon making such a claim Classical Numismatic Gallery shall, in its sole and absolute discretion, reserve the right to consult and rely upon any expert(s) or authority considered by him reliable in establishing the authenticity of that lot. If the lot is then proved not authentic then the original purchaser must immediately return the lot to Classical Numismatic Gallery in the same condition as at the time of the auction with the original Invoice and payment proof. Lots that have been encapsulated ("slabbed")/Graded by a grading and/or authentication service may not be returned for any reason, including authenticity, if they have been removed from the encapsulation ("slab")/Grading.
4. Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Attribution, date, condition, and other descriptions are the opinion of the cataloguer, and no warranty is expressed or implied. Neither the auctioneer nor the seller shall give warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error of description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only, and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. The auctioneer reserves the right in forming his opinion, to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same, provided that he shall have given notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same to the auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the Auction. Under no circumstances will the auctioneer be liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, including, but not limited to, loss of any kind of profit whatsoever. Estimates are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value. Bidders are advised to scrutinize the lots they bid for.
5. The Auctioneer shall have the right to open or accept the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor, a Bidder by mail, telephone, internet, or any other participant in the Auction. Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise. Auctioneer shall have the right in his or her sole and absolute discretion to accept or decline any bid, challenge any bid or bidding increment, to reduce any mail bid received, adjudicate all bidding disputes and to determine the prevailing bid. The Auctioneer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to rescind the acceptance of any bid and place the lot for Auction again. Auctioneer's decision on all bidding disputes shall be binding and final.
6. No "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid. Bids will not be accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age. The estimate figure below each lot are the auctioneer's estimate of an expected price only, bids which are less than the lower estimate will not be considered by the auctioneer.
7. Your bids will be treated as your maximum bid. Classical Numismatic Gallery is not responsible for any errors in bidding. All Bidders should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is the bid intended. Once the lot is announced sold, the Buyer is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Buyer made a mistake.
8. Classical Numismatic Gallery reserve the right to postpone or cancel the auction without notice in its sole discretion. Any lot or lots may be withdrawn by the Auctioneer without notice prior to its being sold. No participant in the Auction shall have a right to claim any costs or damages, including consequential damages from the Auctioneer or the Consignor if a lot or lots is withdrawn from the auction, or due to delay or cancellation of the auction.
9. The Purchase price for each lot shall be the sum of hammer price plus 12.50% Buyers Premium plus applicable GST on Hammer plus 18% GST on Buyers Premium. 18% GST will be applicable on shipping & insurance charges and on late payment charges. There would be additional shipping charge on lots depending on weight, size and quantity. The total Invoice amount shall be paid in full within 7 days of the date of auction, prior to delivery of the lot. Any bidder who does not pay within the standard deadline of 7 working days, may be considered a negligent payer and may be subject to increased scrutiny and additional requirements in order to participate in future auctions.
10. Invoices are due and payable immediately upon receipt. Interest and late fees of 2% per month plus GST shall be payable on Invoices not settled within 7 working days of the auction date. The buyer shall ensure that all payment formalities are completed within 7 working days of the date of the auction. In case payment is not received within such period, this shall be treated as a breach of contract and Classical Numismatic Gallery may take any steps, including the institution of legal proceedings, which are appropriate to enforce payment by the buyer.
11. Payment shall be made in Indian Rupee by cheque/D.D. drawn on Indian banks or by Net Banking. We require payment in full and reflecting in our bank account from any Buyer prior to delivery of lots. Title does not pass until lots are paid in full. All associated costs for the delivery of lots such as handling, shipping, and insurance will be added to the purchase price. Credit cards will be accepted. Payment by credit card will be charged a 2% additional service fee.
12. In the event if a Buyer fails to make full payment within 14 days of the auction date, Classical Numismatic Gallery reserves the right to deem the sale incomplete and to re-sell the material by auction or privately, without notice to the Buyer, and the Buyer agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the Buyer's purchase price. Classical Numismatic Gallery has a right to offset any sums due from a Buyer against any future consignment or purchase or monies or goods in possession of Classical Numismatic Gallery.
13. Any person submitting bids on behalf of a company, corporation or any other person/persons agree to be personally liable for full payment of the invoice.
14. Auctioneer shall make maximum efforts to properly enter and execute bid received by E-mail, SMS or by other means. However, auctioneer shall not be liable for any errors for incorrectly entered or incorrectly executed bids. Bidders are responsible for their bids including any errors they may make in placing bids. Auctioneer reserve the right to refuse and reject unsigned bid sheet.
15. The auctioneer will not hold himself responsible for the safe custody of any lots left for more than seven (7) working days after the date of sale, and reserves the right to charge storage.
16. Bidders who have not paid their previous Invoices in full and also the bidders not known to us must provide us with deposit of at least twenty percent (20%) of their total bids for that Auction or such other amount as Classical Numismatic Gallery may, in its sole and absolute discretion, require before any bids from such Bidder will be accepted. Deposits submitted will be applied to purchases. Any remaining deposits will be promptly refunded, upon clearance of funds.
17. We reserve the right to refuse to allow a person or persons to attend the live floor bidding session of the Auction, and also reserve the right to reject disruptive or non-compliant bidders from the floor session, at the discretion of the auctioneer.
